SAN BERNARDINO COURT TO OFFER 'MyCITATIONS' ONLINE TOOL TO REQUEST REDUCED FINES IN INFRACTION CASES BASED ON FINANCIAL NEED

SAN BERNARDINO, CA—As part of the California Courts' continuing effort to expand access to justice, effective June 5, 2024, the San Bernardino Superior Court will implement MyCitations, an online ability-to-pay tool that provides the option to request a reduced fine in infraction cases based on financial need.

MyCitations was created in partnership with the Judicial Council of California to:

- Request a reduction to your ticket
- Request a payment plan
- Request community service
- Request more time to pay your ticket

MyCitations provides increased access to the court by providing the option for those in need to answer a series of basic financial status questions and submit an online request for reduced fines to the court.

To use MyCitations visit the court's website www.sb-court.org and select the "Traffic" option for details and information on MyCitations or access MyCitations directly at <https://mycitations.courts.ca.gov>.
